

Justice Reinvestment in Clackamas County

Clackamas County received a Justice Reinvestment grant in the amount of $2.41 million for 2017-2019 to support the following:

-  SAFETY People undergo thorough risk and needs assessments to determine whether they can be managed safely and effectively in the community.
-  ACCOUNTABILITY People receive reentry type services through a Transition Center that offers education, employment, mentoring, and other services.
-  TREATMENT People receive intensive residential and community-based substance abuse treatment and mental health services in the community.
-  VICTIM SERVICES Ten percent of the county's Justice Reinvestment funds are used to support victims of domestic and sexual violence and child abuse.

How has Justice Reinvestment improved Oregon's approach to public safety?

What Elected Officials Can Do

Justice Reinvestment is an important shift in how Oregon creates greater public safety. It's the smart approach, but it will take time, commitment, and leadership to get right.

Legislators play an important role in Justice Reinvestment's success. You can:
